This exhibit will reflect the importance of women in our society from a historical perspective or a current perspective. Which women in your life are important? This could be your mother, a political figure or a gold medalist in the Olympics. It could also be an image of something that a woman invented or made. There are so many ways that women have shaped the world we live in. All 2 dimensional media including painting, drawing, photography, mixed media and collage will be accepted. All work must be original. No reproductions please. All work must be framed and wired for hanging.

Up to 2 images will be allowed for submission. Please send a jpeg of images to westendartsny@gmail.com with a copy of this form.
